

Friday, Oct 3rd, 10 am; KBLC 3rd floor Qualicum Room – 1961 East Mall

When Learning is Truly Celebrated – Lee Shulman

Lee Shulman, past President of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, will challenge us to think about what it is like to truly celebrate learning in higher education. He will call upon his considerable experience to provide us with some examples and helpful ways to keep us moving forward in our own celebrations of learning. This event is sponsored by the Carl Wieman Science Education Initiative and the Centre for Teaching and Academic Growth.